Family Business Dynamics

An Introduction
Mr. Peter Leach (United Kingdom)
Adjunct Professor in Family Business, Imperial College London
Founder and Chairman, Peter Leach Associates Ltd.
Author "Family Enterprises, The Essentials"

One of the world's leading teachers, writers and consultants on family business, Peter Leach has worked with hundreds of business families across the world. His opening session will introduce several key concepts that will be addressed in more detail by the family speakers.

An Industrial Family's Story

Early Days: 1890 Peugeot Frédéric Banzet

The Changing Relationship Between a Family and its Businesses Mr. Frédéric Banzet (France)

Eighth Generation Peugeot Family Member; Senior Partner, FFP S.A. and Chairman and CEO of FFP UK

Beginning in 1810, the Peugeot family's industrial heritage started with coffee grinders, followed by bicycles and today PSA Group is Europe's second-biggest car manufacturer with brands including Peugeot, Citroën, DS, Opel and Vauxhall.

Frédéric Banzet will discuss how the family's business focus has evolved through its holding in FFP, a long-term investment company, majority-owned by Etablissements Peugeot Frères.

In 2014, the family gave up somewhat partial control of its car business, through an imposed restructuring of the capital. Over the last 20 years, it drew from its industrial experience to develop diversified assets. This move also helped support a successful turnaround. Frédéric will explain how their family governance has allowed different family points of view to coalesce into a common approach leading towards strategic renewal.

Family Training and Development

Developing Responsible, Self-Empowered Individuals Dr. Basma Sulaiman Al Zamil (Saudi Arabia)
General Manager, Corporate Human Resources, Zamil Group

At Zamil, an international industrial and services Group, the second generation had long-recognized the need to empower the third and fourth generations effectively.

Third generation HR executive Dr. Basma Al Zamil will outline how world-class training for Zamil family executives has been expanded into a much broader mission: to help all fourth generation family members become responsible and self-empowered individuals through a comprehensive Generation-to-Generation (G2G) programme, which begins from age six.

LIVE CASE WITH TABLE-SIZED GROUP DISCUSSIONS - LEE KUM KEE, HONG KONG

SAMMY LEE (G4) ANDREA LEE (G5)

Family Governance, Succession and Invisible Leadership Mr. Eddy Lee, Chairman, Lee Kum Kee Family Investment Mr. Sammy Lee, Chairman, Chief Invisible Officer & Chief Happiness Officer, LKK Health Products Group Limited Ms. Andrea Lee, Head of Family Office, Lee Kum Kee Family

The Lee Kum Kee story began in 1888, when founder Lee Kum Sheung accidentally created oyster sauce when making soup. Today, Lee Kum Kee is a global brand leader in Asian sauces and healthcare products. In this interactive live case, you will learn how the fourth generation (G4) created a family governance system and, later, how G5 family members succeeded them in key roles. Finally, the family will discuss strategic business innovations such as the Autopilot Leadership Model to provide direction (but not direct command) and a Happiness Index to monitor success.

What Would You Have Done? During the afternoon, you will work in table-sized groups to discuss key challenges that the Lee family faced during its governance journey, before hearing what the family actually did, drawing from Eddy, Sammy and Andrea's first-hand experiences.

EVENING PROGRAMME

Participants are invited to a rooftop reception overlooking St. James's Park and Buckingham Palace hosted by Edmond de Rothschild Each session will answer your toughest questions on many critical family business challenges including: business diversification, family development, succession, family governance, values & culture, exiting from a family firm and responsible ownership.

Business Values and Culture

Family Influence and Leadership Mr. Andy Rubin (United Kingdom) Chair, Pentland Brands plc

Founded in 1932 as a shoe business in Liverpool, the family later bought then sold Reebok, using the proceeds to help create a "family of brands". Today, Pentland is a family-owned leader in sport and fashion with brands including Speedo, Ellesse, Canterbury, and a majority share in global retailer JD Sports.

Andy Rubin, member of the third generation and Chair of the brand division, will outline the company's unique culture, recognised by awards including "Best Corporate Workplace in the UK" and the "2017 IMD/FBN Global Family Business Award".

EXITING FROM A FAMILY BUSINESS

The Decision Process and What Happens Next*

Mr. Jose Juan (JJ) Serra Paiz (Guatemala)

Third Generation Family Member, Paiz Family

JJ's grandfather opened his first store in 1928. By 2009, Grupo Paiz was a large supermarket group employing over 30,000 people. After a sudden issue at a key partner, the family created a new joint venture with Wal-Mart de México, before later deciding to merge. The session will explore the difficult decision to exit a successful third generation business. JJ will bring perspectives from his time as a corporate board member and explain how the change has affected family members' roles, family governance and philanthropy.

HIGH-ENERGY DISCUSSION GROUPS

Responsible Ownership; The Global Challenge
Prof. Denise Kenyon-Rouvinez (Switzerland)
Formerly Wild Group Professor of Family Business, Family Office, Governance
IMD Business School

Prof. Kenyon-Rouvinez has worked extensively with family firms around the world, including in her recent role at IMD. Author of many books, she is also a member of the World Economic Expert Network.

Denise will explain that family firms are best-positioned to respond to global challenges because families control the ownership, and hence, strategic business direction. Participants will consider four acute global challenges:

1. environmental; 2. political; 3. societal and 4. technological. Working in high-energy groups, participants will reflect on what could be done to address selected issues. Lastly, you will consider what you, and your firm, could do differently.

RESPONSIBLE OWNERSHIP CASE STUDIES

Aligning Strategy, Culture and Practice A Panel of Family Speakers Facilitated by Prof. Denise Kenyon-Rouvinez (Switzerland)

Building on the previous group discussions, Denise will be joined by a panel of family business speakers who will each share their ongoing journey towards better corporate responsibility and sustainability.

The families will discuss the practical challenges of aligning strategy, culture and practices in a family firm. The session will particularly focus on how to achieve the right balance between the family owners driving corporate responsibility and the employees really owning it.

Evening Programme

Participants are invited to a networking reception with drinks and food choices

THURSDAY, 10 JUNE - PEER-TO-PEER DISCUSSION (MORNING ONLY)

Facilitator: Mr. Peter Leach (United Kingdom)
